20 One-Liners to Remember

Quick-fire facts for last-minute revision.

- 1 IIBF (Indian Institute of Banking & Finance) is the body that conducts the JAIIB and CAIIB examinations for bank employees in India.
IIBF administers these certification exams that Indian bank staff take for career progression.
- 2 JAIIB (Junior Associate of the Indian Institute of Bankers) is usually the first certification bank employees attempt before CAIIB.
JAIIB is the entry-level IIBF certification in the typical progression toward CAIIB.
- 3 The revised JAIIB syllabus covers four papers, including Indian Economy & Indian Financial System and Retail Banking & Wealth Management.
IIBF updated the JAIIB paper structure to four subjects under its revised syllabus.
- 4 CAIIB (Certified Associate of the Indian Institute of Bankers) requires clearing two compulsory papers plus one elective paper.
The compulsory CAIIB papers are Advanced Bank Management and Bank Financial Management.

- 5 CAIIB's two compulsory papers are Advanced Bank Management (ABM) and Bank Financial Management (BFM).

Candidates must clear both ABM and BFM along with one chosen elective to complete CAIIB.

- 6 CAIIB elective options include subjects such as Rural Banking, Retail Banking, HR Management, IT, Risk Management and Central Banking.

IIBF lets CAIIB candidates pick one elective paper from a list of specialised banking subjects.

- 7 Learning Sessions is an online coaching platform for JAIIB, CAIIB and IIBF exam preparation founded by Mr. Ashish Jain.

Ashish Jain, a former banker himself, started Learning Sessions to coach fellow bankers.

- 8 Learning Sessions video courses also cover bank promotion exams spanning officer Scale 1 through Scale 5.

Promotion-exam coaching sits alongside JAIIB and CAIIB courses on the platform.

- 9 IIBF offers specialised certifications beyond JAIIB and CAIIB, such as Certified Credit Officer and Digital Banking.

These add-on IIBF certifications let bankers build expertise in specific functional areas.

- 10 KYC stands for Know Your Customer, a compliance topic regularly tested in IIBF banking certification exams.

KYC norms are a core regulatory concept examined across several IIBF certification courses.

- 11 MSME stands for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, a subject area covered in IIBF certification courses.

MSME banking is treated as a distinct specialised topic within IIBF's certification catalogue.

- 12 Bank officer promotion exams commonly assess candidates across grades from Scale 1 up to Scale 5.

Scale 1 to Scale 5 represent progressively senior officer grades in Indian public sector banks.

- 13 Online banking-exam coaching platforms often bundle coupon-code discounts that apply at checkout during limited promotional windows.

Such discounts are typically time-bound and tied to a specific exam cycle rather than permanent.

- 14 Mock tests, including memory-recalled question sets, are a widely used preparation tool for JAIIB and CAIIB aspirants.

Practising mock tests alongside video lectures helps convert passive study into exam readiness.

- 15 Downloadable recorded lectures inside a learning app let candidates study offline during limited free time.

Offline access is a common feature in banking-exam apps for candidates balancing branch duties.

- 16 Video playback at up to 2x speed is a common feature offered by online banking-exam coaching platforms for quick revision.

Faster playback speeds help candidates revise recorded lectures efficiently before exams.

- 17 Coaching platforms typically pair concept lecture videos with separate question-practice videos for applied learning.

Combining theory videos with practice questions helps candidates apply concepts, not just watch them.

- 18 Coupon codes and discount percentages for banking-exam courses change with each new promotional campaign.

A code that worked for one campaign may not remain valid or active for the next campaign.

- 19 Candidates should verify the live coupon code, discount and price on the official notification before paying for any course.

Verifying official details prevents candidates from relying on outdated or expired promotional terms.
