20 True or False

Decide, then check the answer and reason below each statement.

Question 1

This mock test contains 20 English sentence-completion questions with a full answer key.

TRUE

The article provides exactly 20 MCQs along with a complete answer key for self-checking.

Question 2

In Q15, the correct answer 'jumped' matches the past tense used in the rest of the sentence.

TRUE

The sentence describes a completed past action, so the past-tense verb form is required.

Question 3

Sectional cut-offs mean a candidate can fail overall even after scoring well in other sections.

TRUE

Many banks require clearing a minimum score in every individual section, including English.

Question 4

The article recommends timing the 20-question mock test to about 10 to 12 minutes.

TRUE

This timing is suggested so practice pace matches actual exam-day speed requirements.

Question 5

The suggested 4-week study plan places full-length timed mock tests in the final week.

TRUE

Week 4 of the plan is dedicated to complete, timed mock tests followed by error review.

Question 6

The article advises confirming exact marks and cut-offs on the official bank promotion notification.

TRUE

Marks and cut-offs vary by bank and scale, so the official notification is the accurate source.

Question 7

Choosing 'the tallest' for the giraffe question is flagged as a common double-article grammar trap.

TRUE

The word 'tallest' already implies the superlative, so adding 'the' again repeats the article.

Question 8

Bank promotion exams typically test English, Reasoning, Quantitative Aptitude, and Banking Awareness.

TRUE

These four areas are described as the common sections in internal bank promotion exams.

Question 9

The article suggests eliminating clearly wrong options before committing to a final answer.

TRUE

Removing obviously incorrect choices first is presented as a core exam-solving strategy.

Question 10

Learning near-synonyms like 'cost' versus 'expense' is part of the suggested vocabulary practice.

TRUE

Week 2 of the study plan focuses on vocabulary and distinguishing close near-synonym pairs.

Question 11

The mock test in this article contains 50 English MCQs instead of 20.

FALSE

The article provides exactly 20 sentence-completion MCQs, not 50.

Question 12

The article states English sectional cut-offs are identical across every bank and every scale.

FALSE

The article explicitly says marks and cut-offs vary by bank and by scale.

Question 13

The recommended answer for the giraffe sentence is 'tall', not 'tallest'.

FALSE

The answer key marks 'tallest' as correct, since 'tall' is not the superlative form needed.

Question 14

The article recommends checking each answer immediately after every single question.

FALSE

It recommends matching all 20 answers together at the end, not checking one by one.

Question 15

Sentence-completion questions are described as the slowest, most time-consuming exam questions.

FALSE

The article calls them quick to solve, offering a speed advantage over other question types.

Question 16

The article claims the English section is always the hardest section to score full marks in.

FALSE

It states the opposite: English is often the easiest section to score full marks in.

Question 17

In the travel-cost question, the article says 'money' is the most precise word for the blank.

FALSE

The answer key marks 'cost' as the precise fit, not 'money' or 'expense'.

Question 18

The suggested study plan has candidates take full mock tests before building grammar basics.

FALSE

Grammar basics come in week 1, while full mock tests are scheduled last, in week 4.
