20 True or False

Decide, then check the answer and reason below each statement.

Question 1

The CAIIB Central Banking syllabus has five modules, Module A through Module E.

TRUE

IIBF structures the elective into five modules from A to E.

Question 2

Central Banking is a compulsory paper that every CAIIB candidate must attempt.

FALSE

Central Banking is an elective; candidates choose it from five elective options.

Question 3

CAIIB has four compulsory papers: ABM, BFM, ABFM and BRBL.

TRUE

These four papers are compulsory for all CAIIB candidates.

Question 4

The CAIIB examination is conducted only in offline pen-and-paper mode.

FALSE

CAIIB, including Central Banking, is conducted in online mode only.

Question 5

Module C of Central Banking covers Monetary and Credit Policies.

TRUE

Module C is dedicated to monetary, credit and fiscal policy tools.

Question 6

Module E of Central Banking deals with Non-Banking Financial Companies and Primary Dealers.

TRUE

Module E widens the syllabus to cover NBFCs and Primary Dealers.

Question 7

IIBF is the conducting body for the CAIIB examination.

TRUE

The Indian Institute of Banking and Finance conducts CAIIB.

Question 8

Rural Banking is not among the elective options available in CAIIB.

FALSE

Rural Banking is one of the five CAIIB elective options, alongside Central Banking.

Question 9

The Reserve Bank of India and India-specific laws like FEMA are covered in Module B.

TRUE

Module B, Central Banking in India, covers the RBI, BR Act and FEMA.

Question 10

The Taylor Rule is discussed under the Monetary Policy unit of Module C.

TRUE

The Taylor Rule appears as a monetary policy concept in Module C.

Question 11

CAIIB Central Banking has only three modules in total.

FALSE

The syllabus has five modules, not three.

Question 12

Basel norms and financial stability topics are covered in Module D.

TRUE

Module D, Supervision and Financial Stability, includes Basel and prudential norms.

Question 13

CRR, SLR and Bank Rate are examples of monetary policy instruments in Module C.

TRUE

These are standard tools listed under monetary policy instruments in Module C.

Question 14

NABARD and IDBI are examples of institutions studied under Module A.

FALSE

NABARD and IDBI appear under Module B, not Module A.

Question 15

The CAIIB exam question format for Central Banking is purely subjective, essay-style answers.

FALSE

CAIIB Central Banking uses an objective, MCQ-based question format.

Question 16

A candidate can only choose Central Banking after also clearing all CAIIB electives.

FALSE

A candidate picks just one elective, such as Central Banking, alongside the compulsory papers.

Question 17

The Banking Ombudsman Scheme is discussed within Module B of the syllabus.

TRUE

Module B's India-specific issues include the Banking Ombudsman Scheme.

Question 18

Primary Dealers and their role in the government securities market fall under Module E.

TRUE

Module E covers Primary Dealers alongside Non-Banking Financial Companies.

Question 19

Fiscal policy, including Union and State Budgets, is discussed under Module C.

TRUE

Module C includes a Fiscal Policy unit covering budgets and government finances.

Question 20

Clearing CAIIB has no bearing on a bank employee's promotion prospects.

FALSE

CAIIB clearance is commonly linked to promotion and increment benefits in Indian banks.

Keep Learning with Learning Sessions