20 One-Liners to Remember

Quick-fire facts for last-minute revision.

- 1 The IIBF Certificate Course on Digital Banking is open to both members and non-members of IIBF.
This openness makes it accessible to frontline staff and aspirants without an IIBF membership.
- 2 The IIBF Digital Banking exam has 120 MCQs for a total of 100 marks.
Each question carries roughly equal weight toward the 100-mark total.
- 3 Candidates need 50 out of 100 marks to qualify in the Digital Banking exam.
This is the minimum passing threshold set for the certification.
- 4 The Digital Banking exam is 2 hours long, conducted online, in English, with no negative marking.
Knowing the exact exam format helps candidates manage time and attempt every question.
- 5 Edward Bellamy's 1890 novel 'Looking Backward' is credited with an early fictional mention of a 'credit card'.
The book referenced the term repeatedly, imagining the concept decades before real cards existed.

6 Charga-Plates, the first store cards, appeared in the US in 1928.

These metal plates were store-specific and required manual merchant record-keeping.

7 In 1946, the National Bank of Brooklyn issued a bank charge card through its 'Charge-It' program.

This program became an early blueprint for how banks settle card transactions with merchants.

8 Diners Club introduced the Diners Charge Card in 1950, usable across multiple stores.

It was the first card letting customers shop at several different stores with one card.

9 Bank of America issued the BankAmericard credit card in 1958, later renamed Visa in 1976.

The rename came as Bank of America partnered with other banks to scale the card network.

10 MasterCard was born in 1979, formerly known as the Interbank Card Association and Master Charge.

This rebrand established MasterCard as a global card network alongside Visa.

11 Central Bank of India launched India's first bank credit card in 1980.

Andhra Bank also issued a Visa-branded card in India the same year.

- 12 Vijaya Bank introduced MasterCard in India in 1988, allowing cash withdrawal from branches.

Eligibility for this card was based purely on the customer's income.

- 13 Indian banks began issuing debit cards in the early 1990s, enabling ATM cash withdrawals anytime.

This period marked the rapid spread of ATMs alongside debit card issuance.

- 14 RuPay was launched in 2012 by the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) as an indigenous card brand.

RuPay was built to offer debit, credit and prepaid cards under a homegrown Indian network.

- 15 From 2018 onwards, RuPay gained strong traction in tier-2 and tier-3 cities.

RuPay's penetration in these cities has outpaced Visa and MasterCard in certain segments.

- 16 A Debit Card is linked directly to a bank account, with money deducted in real time.

This distinguishes it from a credit card, where repayment happens later.

- 17 A Credit Card lets the customer spend on credit and repay the issuer later.

Credit cards are generally issued by banks and select approved non-bank entities.
